STOMACH TROUBLES

Cured By Vinol—Here is Proof
Seymour, Ind.—"I was troubled with a chronic stomach trouble, and five weeks ago it got so bad I had to give up work. I had tried various medicines without relief, and was finally induced to try Vinol. After taking the first bottle I was greatly benefited. Am now on the third bottle and ready to resume work. Am rapidly gaining in weight and strength." Edw. Nie-man.

It is the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers, combined with the strengthening properties of tonic from contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in restoring perfect digestion and at the same time it builds up the tired, over-worked and run-down system. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

NEWARK THEATRES

NEWARK THEATRE.

That fat men are always funny on the stage has been demonstrated by Frank McIntyre, the 300-pound laugh maker of "The Traveling Salesman" fame, who will be presented at the Newark Theatre on Monday, April 22, as the star of "Shoe", a satirical farce by George Bronson Howard, which was the first comedy hit on Broadway this season and enjoyed long and prosperous runs both in New York and Chicago.

The play runs for three riotous acts, showing respectively the milkman's bedroom, a country club and a theatre, and is conceded to be the funniest farce of years. Henry B. Harris, who is directing Mr. McIntyre's tour, has surrounded his star with a splendid supporting cast, which includes Myrtle Tannehill, Eva McDonald, Katherine Stewart, Marie Fitzgerald, Orlando Daly, John Cumberland and Roy Fairchild.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE.

True to its ante-season promises, Proctor's Park Place Theatre is setting the standard for American vaudeville. Untiring efforts in the search of novelty and originality have resulted in the engagement for the week of April 22 of no less a personage than Pauline.

"Who is Pauline?" and "How does he do his marvellous stunts?" Some call it science, some call it a fake; but whatever you call it, that's just what it is. Pauline has been a sensation all over the world, and has progressed further in the science of hypnotic suggestion than his predecessors. Closely pressing the star for honors will come that comedienne of quality, Lydia Barry, direct from her triumphs at the New York Winter Garden. Miss Barry has a budget of songs that are sure fire. Those well-liked veterans, Raymond and Caverly, right out of Frankfurtland; Hayward and Hayward depict the trials and tribulations of a couple of down-and-out variety people in a skit called "Holding Out". Among other bright features are "The Three Lyes", the Ioleen Sisters, sharpshooting on the bounding wire; Barry and Halvers, with patter and nonsense; the Ishikawa Brothers, world's greatest hand equilibrist and the motion pictures, which are always diverting and instructive.

EMPIRE THEATRE.

Next Monday at the Empire Theatre, Newark, the management has arranged to play a return engagement of Barney Gerard's "Follies of the Day" and "All Star Jubilee" company, which contains all stars of the burlesque field. Principal among the stars engaged are the Burke Brothers of "Diamond Palace" fame; another star is James Lichter, who is considered the best comedian since Louis Mann played German comedy characters; Gertrude Hays, the popular star, will be seen in a number of new specialties; the chorus has been enlarged and 40 handsome show girls are in the group.

This will also be in the nature of a "home week", as among the members of the company are Mr. James Bryson, a Newark boy, and Nellie Bryson and Marie Hilton, pretty young misses of Newark.

Two distinct novelties will be inaugurated during this engagement, viz.: The "waltzing contest" on Thursday evening, to which any gentleman in the audience is eligible, and the daily ladies' reception on the stage, after each matinee, at which light refreshments will be served to the ladies.

GAYETY THEATRE.

Commencing with a matinee Monday and continuing for one week, King Momo will hold sway at the Gayety Theatre. It marks the initial performance in the city of Dan Welch Burlesquers, under the management of Jack Singer. The cast of stars includes Ben Welch, Lew Kelly, Vic Casmore, Ben Turbutt and Pat Kearney. The female contingent, of which there are thirty all told, will be headed by Alice Clifton and Della Auley. The song hits will include "Mister Music Master", "Betts, Betts, Betts", "American Rose", "Senorita", "Broadway", "Military Mails", "Beckie", "It's Great to Be in Love", "Italian Gal", "Marguerite", "Spring Bird" and "Mad House Ray". Amateur night Friday.

A Ben-Hur Needed.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., April 17, 1913.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:
Sir—Some weeks ago there appeared in your paper an article concerning the fire department equipment and the advisability of securing additional apparatus, which I read with no little interest. Since then I have been following up fire matters rather closely and find that the council and the fire committee have no easy task in attempting to dispose of the various problems which confront them. The further one investigates and the more one talks with those vitally interested, the greater becomes the problem. To satisfy all parties would necessitate a fire committee whose membership included a Solomon, a Demosthenes, a Napoleon and a Gladstone.

It may appear to the casual observer that the delays in acting are inexcusable but when one delves underneath the surface and hears the endless variety of advice, suggestion and criticism that is so lavishly heaped upon the heads of the fire committee members, one wonders, not that they delay action, but they have the temerity to act at all.

With the foregoing explanation I shall proceed to do a little suggesting myself. Horses have been obtained, I am informed, to pull the new chemical wagon for Phoenix Hose Company and the council intends to erect an addition to Central fire house for a stable, and have a man on duty twenty-one hours out of twenty-four, the range of selection is narrowed greatly. It will be conceded by all that the man chosen should be a Bloomfield fireman. The great majority will say that, other requirements permitting, he should be selected from the members of Phoenix Hose Company. What are these other requirements? First, a knowledge of and kindness for horses; second, a sufficient amount of physical strength; and third, courage, physical, mental and moral.

The man chosen should be neither a Busris nor a Bacchus, but rather an Ajax and a Mentor.

Where shall we find this character, this curber of the fiery steeds, this modern Ben-Hur?

If, as we have been recently told, Bloomfield is justly proud of its fire department and the members thereof, let us scan well the names on the roll, and weighing impartially the qualifications of each candidate, select therefrom the man best fitted in all ways to fill this exacting position. And when the appointment is made let every fireman stand ready to approve the committee's choice, casting aside all political partisanship and cliquish tendencies, upholding only the high standard of the department, and the honor and the pride of our town.

Homeopathic Hospital.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Board of Managers of the Homeopathic Hospital of Essex county, held Saturday morning, April 6, the following officers were elected: Miss Charles A. Groves, president; Miss Eleanor Mosley, first vice-president; Mrs. H. Clark, second vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Doremus, third vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Thompson, corresponding secretary; Miss J. B. Mules, recording secretary; Mrs. W. W. Lyon, treasurer.

The treasurer reported receipts for the year, $3,597.11, with a balance of $332.03.

A change in the constitution, making the day of monthly meeting the first Friday instead of the first Saturday morning of the month, will be voted on at the next meeting.

A reception and linen show will be held at the hospital, 133 Littleton avenue, Newark, on Monday, April 22, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The hospital is in need of sheets, pillowcases, tablecloths, towels, tray cloths, napkins, etc.

Boy Scout News.

All scout troops of this town have been invited to participate in the great scout rally and demonstration of Northern New Jersey to be held in Military Park, Newark, April 27, 1913, at 2 o'clock sharp. There will be exhibits of all the various scout activities. Music by drum corps and a boys' brass band. Troop No. 5 will give a first aid demonstration, a water-boiling contest and some scout games. Scoutmasters should communicate with headquarters as to the nature of the demonstration which their troops will give. All the local troops will meet at Bloomfield Centre not later than 1:15 P. M. and go in a body. Troops as far as possible should be in full uniform and carry their troop and patrol flags, but scouts not in uniform are invited to take part in the exhibits.

The National Court of Honor of the B. S. A. has awarded to Arthur R. Eldred, a scout of Rockville Centre,

L. I., the honor of being the first Eagle Scout in North America. The title of Eagle Scout goes only to the youth who has won distinction in the three intermediate stages of scoutcraft, as a tenderfoot, second-class scout and first-class scout. Eldred wears twenty-one badges for excellency in as many useful activities. His specialties are handicraft, poultry farming, painting, horsemanship, dairying, bicycling, cooking, chemistry, electricity, gardening, pathfinding and swimming. His left coat sleeve is so crowded with medals that there is scarcely room for another one. He is, the judges decided, a 100 per cent scout.

Troop 5 broke all records last week for good turns rendered. The hospital squad recorded 38, Eagle patrol 30, King Snake patrol 28 and the Fox patrol 12.

Since January 1, 1912, 105 boys have passed tests as follows: Forty tenderfoot, thirty second-class and five first-class, from the various troops of this town. New boys are being enrolled each week and the interest is growing more and more each day.

The Scout Baseball league opened last Saturday afternoon. Troop 4 and troop 6 played at Soho Park; troop 6 won. The schedule for the month of April is as follows: April 15, troop 2 and troop 1, at Broughton field; April 15, troop 5 and troop 6, at Soho Park; April 19, troop 5 and troop 2, at Centre school field; April 22, troop 1 and troop 6, at Llewellyn field; April 26, troop 5 and troop 4, at Soho Park; April 29, troop 1 and troop 2, at Llewellyn field.
